Honorable Melvin Price, Chairman
Committee on Armed Services
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

You will recall that in 1976 the Committee considered, and reported favorably, HR 13615, a bill to amend the CIA Retirement and Disability Act. At the conclusion of the Committee's consideration, the Committee, in the exercise of its oversight function, directed the Agency to conduct a careful analysis of the application of the qualifying provisions of Section 203 of the Act in designating participants, and that a report of the results of this analysis should be sent to the Committee by 1 October 1976 and annually thereafter. This letter transmits the annual report due 1 October 1977.

The report for 1976 was prepared by [redacted] and, to maintain continuity in the continuing analysis, we engaged [redacted] again to perform the current study. [redacted]

[redacted] report is submitted herewith for review by members of the Committee and your staff. [redacted] has concluded that the Agency, during the past year, has continued to administer the CIA Retirement System within the intent of Congress and the law which authorized this system. In his report, [redacted] notes that the Agency has adopted and implemented all of the administrative changes recommended in his original report.
